

Ms Annabel Rebello, (MA)

Assistant Professor, Department of English

She has 7 years of work experience in teaching English Language and Literature with the Department of English. Her areas of interests are Indian English Drama, English Language Teaching, Contemporary Poetry, Contemporary Drama, Border and Migration Studies.

She was Awarded for translating and Assisting in script writing for 'Mahakala' (2016) Winner of the Shortest plays in the Golden Book of World Records in 17 seconds. Winner of the Best Paper Award on "From Reel to Real Identity crisis in 'The Hunger Games' Trilogy' at the Two Day National Research Conference at Aurangabad on "Redefining Identities, Cultures and Literatures" organised by The English Literator Society, Pune in December 2016. She has also been felicitated by the college for her outstanding contribution in "Research" in January 2020.

She has also attended various Workshops on Planning Online and Blended Learning, Learning Management Systems, Theoretical Frameworks of MOOC and Cooperative Learning.

She has published various Research Papers at National & International Journals, attended conferences and presented papers at National & International Conferences.