

Ms. Vanetta Rodrigues (M.A in English)

Assistant Professor

Department of English

“We never know which lives we influence, or when, or why.”

—Stephen King

She has an experience of two years of teaching English Language and Literature with the Department of English. She is a certified IELTS Trainer.

She believes in a learner centric approach. She has completed online courses like Modern Business Writing offered by ALISON, International Certified Career Coach (Foundation Level) by MINDLER, Supporting adolescent learners: Social and emotional wellbeing by Griffith University via FutureLearn.

She has participated in the ‘All India Essay Writing Competition for Lecturers’ 2019-20’ conducted by K.P. B. Hinduja College of Commerce on 17th January 2020. She has also attended the three days workshop titled ‘Masterclass for IELTS Trainers’ organized by British Council India from 13th - 15th June 2019. She has also attended and presented at international and national conferences in 2020. She conducted a short research along with students and presented the research paper titled, ‘A Comprehensive study of the use of online resources for effective teaching during the Covid-19 pandemic’ at an international conference hosted by Garden City University, Bengaluru on 29th - 30th May 2020. She has attended an International Workshop on ‘Research Methods and Approaches to Migration and Diaspora Studies’ (30 June -2 July 2020) organized Online by the Centre for Diaspora Studies, Central University of Gujarat, Gandhinagar, India, in collaboration with the Centre for Migration, Refugees and Belonging, University of East London, U.K.

