

Ms. Susan Asokan (M.A in English)

Assistant Professor

Department of English

Committee Member of Student Council, Sports and Srishti Magazine

- She is currently pursuing her Ph.D. from the Department of English, SNDT Women's University, Churchgate under the guidance of Prof Mala Pandurang, Principal of Dr BMN College of Home Science.
- She is also a Visiting Faculty at PG Department of English, SNDT Women's University.
- She presented a paper titled "Interrogating Heterogeneous Masculinities: A Reading of select Hindi and Malayalam Films" at the National Seminar Chikitsa 2020 on 12th and 13th March, 2020 organised by Krantijyoti Savitribai Phule Women's Studies Centre, SPPU.
- She participated in the "12th Dharam S. Hinduja All-India Essay Writing Competition for Lecturers" 2019-20 organised by K.P.B Hinduja College of Commerce, Charni Road on 17th January, 2020.
- She presented her research paper at the National Seminar on "Digital Humanities: Theory and Praxis" organised by the Department of English, Pondicherry University sponsored by SPARC (Scheme for Promotion of Academic Research and Collaboration) on 18th September, 2019. The title of her research paper was "Understanding Queer Identity in the Digital Realm".
- She attended a two-day workshop on Digital Humanities on 19th and 20th September, 2019 at Pondicherry University.
- She also has a chapter published in the book called Aspects of Marginal Literature titled "Language and Marginalization" pp 135-139, ISBN 978-93-83144-55-6.
- She judged the Elocution competition organised as part of Genderlogue at Maniben Nanavati Women's College on 30th July, 2019.

