

Jaya Rajdev is Asst. Professor for the P.G. Diploma ECCE and Diploma ECE programs. She has completed her Master's degree in Human Development, SNDT Women's University and PG Diploma in Counselling Skills from TISS. She has Narrative therapy and practices Certificate from Ummeed Child Development Centre.

She is certified in Emotional Intelligence as a trainer and coach for which she has been invited in Organizations and Institutions to conduct EQ workshops.

She volunteered as Trainer for conducting a 3-day Leadership Skills training for students across Maharashtra, Gujarat, MP, Rajasthan project led by National University Students' Skill Development Programme at TISS. She also volunteered in the POP-UP Festival of Emotions with Equip Kids at CP Goenka International School at Thane where more than 450+ students and parents participated celebrating the International Children's Day. She also volunteers as a Mentor at Antarang Foundation for building employ-ability skills among the community youth.

She has attended workshops on "Understanding Emotional wellness and Self-Empowerment for Living a Life of Emotional Independence" at US Consulate. She has participated in Story Telling workshop at TISS. She has also participated in Mental health ECHO - Narrative ideas and practices the 10 bimonthly online Echo series on Narrative Practices and Ideas organized by Ummeed Child Development Centre.

Jaya Rajdev is Asst. Professor for the P.G. Diploma ECCE and Diploma ECE programs at Maniben Nanavati Women's College. She has completed her Master's degree in Human Development from SNDT Women's University and PG Diploma in Counselling Skills from TISS. She is a practicing EQ Coach and Consultant associated with various projects in equipping corporates, children, students, parents & teachers in Emotional Intelligence (EQ), Lifeskills, Leadership skills to unleash the untapped potential to bring a paradigm shift in their life's.