Brief Overview of the Event

We are very proud to announce that we are the first college in SNDT Women's University to have organized the NSS Orientation Program for the academic year 2020-2021 on 6th January 2021. This event was conducted online via Zoom meetings and was attended by the students and faculty members of Maniben Nanavati Women's College and Dr. Rajshree Trivedi , Principal of Maniben Nanavati Women's College. Dr. Nitin S. PrabhuTendolkar , NSS Program Coordinator, NSS Cell, SNDT Women's University was our honourable Guest speaker for this orientation program. There were 90 NSS volunteers and 10 NSS Committee Members in attendance for this event. NSS P.O Dr. Swati Partani was the compere for the program. The program commenced at 2:30 pm with the University and College song being played for all the attendees. The Welcome address was delivered by Dr. Rajshree Trivedi, Principal, MNWC in which she addressed the true importance of what the NSS Unit stands for i.e serving others in the society and being a selfless individual. NSS P.O Ms. Geeta Varun gave a detailed description about the activities, projects and events that are undertaken by the NSS Unit of MNWC over the years to the freshers who intend to join NSS. Our honourable Guest speaker for the program Dr. Nitin S. PrabhuTendolkar, NSS Program Coordinator, NSS Cell, SNDT Women's University acquainted us with all the activities be it at the state, university or National level that the NSS Unit carries out every year which involves Leadership camp, Disaster Management workshops, Community outreach programmes etc. NSS Volunteers of the academic year 2019-2020 shared their experiences with the attendees regarding working as a volunteer with the NSS Unit and urged the freshers to be a part of NSS Unit in the current academic year. The orientation program ended with a vote of thanks delivered by NSS P.O Ms. Prerana Ramteke and the recitation of the National Anthem.
