

Report – Department of English, MNWC

Talk on “Aesthetics of Dalit Literature: Issues, Texts and Contexts” in conversation with Dr Jaydeep Sarangi, Writer, Poet, Critic

19th February 2021

The Department of English, Maniben Nanavati Women’s College, Mumbai along with Art Pickles organised a Talk on “Aesthetics of Dalit Literature: Issues, Texts and Contexts” in conversation with Dr Jaydeep Sarangi, writer, poet, critic on Stream Yard and Facebook Live on 19th February 2021 from 7 PM to 8:00 PM (IST).

The webinar was moderated by Ms Anushree Ghosh from Art Pickles. It began with Dr Rajshree Trivedi, Principal of Maniben Nanavati Women’s College who spoke about the college and welcomed the speaker and participants. Ms Anushree Ghosh introduced the guest speaker Dr Jaydeep Sarangi, writer, poet, critic. Dr Sarangi shared interesting insights on the position of the Dalits in our country, the policies attached to the community. He spoke about the different perspectives of Dalit Literature and his own research on the different backgrounds, communities, translation, essays, poetry and feminist Dalits.

The session had about 1,000 views on Facebook Live. It ended at 8 pm (IST).

(The recording of the talk has been posted on Facebook on the following link for record purposes)

<https://www.facebook.com/PicklingArt/videos/3680786218705276/>

