Student Feedback 2019-20

One hundred and forty six students submitted the curriculum feedback through a Google form as the lockdown had begun. About 47% students rated the curriculum to be very good while 39% said it was excellent, for 13% it was very good. None of the students said that curriculum was average. When asked about the theoretical knowledge being justified with internship and placement opportunities, less than 1/4th said excellent. More than 40% said it to be very good. While 30% said good, a few thought it to be average. About the curriculum contributing to be job ready, 37% and 31% said good and very good respectively and 24% expressed that it was excellent and less than 10% responded as average.

Over 50% of the respondents answered that the curriculum developed entrepreneurial skills in them. Only 2% thought that curriculum was average for entrepreneurial skills. Good and very good was answered by 17 and 27% respectively. Except 4% all students all others said that there is a scope for further studies. About holistic development with programs like yoga and other co-curricular courses like MOOC, apart from 2.1%, rest all (97.9%) students rated the courses to be excellent, very good and good.
