YAMI committee started with forming a core committee of students for YAMI. A systematic selection process was conducted for forming the core committee. Finally a group of 8 students across various courses were selected as YAMI core committee members. The first brainstorming activity of YAMI for the academic year 2021-22 was held on 18th February 2022. This was the first event was inaugurated by our Principal Dr. Rajshree Trivedi. She enlightened students as to what is the objective of forming YAMI. Further Dr. Swati Partani & Ms. Ketki More took ahead the briefing session and explained the students why they have been chosen to be a part of YAMI. Post briefing session the students began with their group discussion on various issues and following ideas were churned out-

1. Mental health Support group
2. Increasing the representation of our college
3. Zero waste movement
4. Study groups
