VENUE: Food Laboratory,1.1

TIME: 9.00 am onwards

THEME: Azadi ka Amrit Mohotsav

No. of Participants: 12

OBJECTIVES:

1. To encourage students to participate in traditional recipe display.
2. To teach them how to search for the traditional recipes and gather information about its significance.

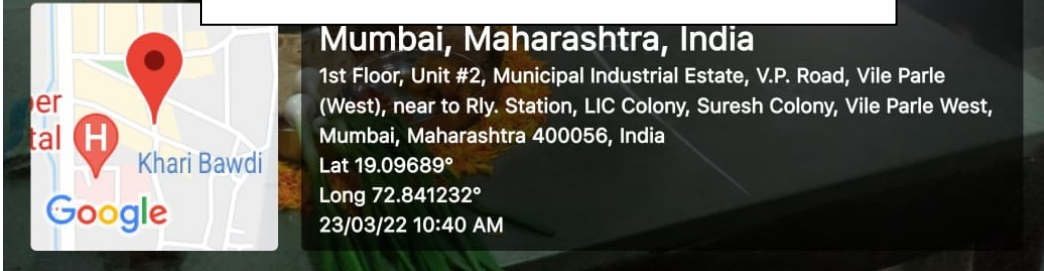

METHODOLOGY:

As per the directives of Jt. Director & SNTD Women's University, under the theme of 'AZADI KA AMRIT MOHOTSAV' the Department of Food & Nutrition at Maniben Nanavati Women's College had organised an exhibition on 'Traditional Indian Regional Foods'. The students prepared these recipes after researching them in Indian traditional recipe books or asked their grandparents about the same. They also wrote information about the recipes that they prepared, the region of origin, its importance, its seasonal value etc...

This event was highly appreciated by the students and other faculty members. Feedback for the same was taken'.

TIME:1.00pm to 2.00pm

OBJECTIVES: To understand the importance of Marathi Bhasha Din and educate students about the culture and heritage of Languages.

METHODOLOGY: Interactive session

OVERVIEW:

The Literary Association of Maniben Nanavati Women's College along with TCLV Junior College and BNCDC celebrated Marathi Bhasha Gaurav Din. Mrs Manisha Vesvikar from the Junior College was the host of the event. The program commenced with the Principal Dr. Rajshree P. Trivedi giving an overview of the event. Dr. Rajshree P. Trivedi informed the students about the importance of Culture and Language. 350 students attended the session. Two poets Ms Shilpa Parulekar Pai and Amrapali Salve were the special invitees for the event who read their poems in Marathi and motivated the students to present their own poems as well as poems composed by well known writer and poet Kusumagaraj. The session began with a poetry reading by Ms Shilpa Parulekar Pai. Parulekar Pai also introduced the audience to a Marathi poem 'Saha' about friendship and bonds. This was followed by Ms Amrapali Salve reading out a beautiful poem 'Maayboli', which consisted of the representation of Marathi language history, culture, and tradition. Ms Amrapali Salve gave some examples of other Marathi poems which were based on language, bonding, human minds etc. Later, Ms Shilpa Parulekar Pai performed a Ghazal.

As the session was on the 'Marathi Bhasha Gaurav Din' students from different cultures participated in the session. Students from the Degree College as well as Junior College read out poetry in Marathi. Ms Falak Sayyed, Ms Siddhi Rogue, Ms Ashwini Dhindle, Ms Tanvi Bamania, Ms Jae Nadkar which was appreciated by the host, guests and by Dr. Rajashree Trivedi.

As the session came to an end, Dr. Savita Kale extended the formal Vote of Thanks.

OUTCOME: Students gained a better understanding of reciting the poem. At the end of the session they were also aware of the cultural and traditional heritage of Marathi Language and its influence on Literature.

Time – 8.00 AM – 12.00

Teaching Staff – Ms. Snehal Obhan, Mr. Saurabh Kotal, Ms. Ketki More

The day started off with screening some videos. The videos belonged to distinct categories from and also had some or the other vital lessons of management. Videos included story of Mumbai Dabbawals, Phool.Co, Tata Company, etc. The students were asked to watch the videos carefully and understand how management is an integral part of every business activity. After screening the videos a google form was circulated amongst students and the consisted of certain questions (both objective & descriptive). Students were asked to fill the questionnaire based on their understanding from whatever they saw through the videos.

The second session of the day consisted of online and offline management games.

First game was based on observation skills. 3 slides were displayed on the screen. Each slide consisted of some random pictures. The slides were displayed on the screen for 10 seconds and after 10 seconds the students were asked to pen down the list of objects they saw. This was a memory test & well as an observation-based activity.

In the second game students were called on stage and were made to speak on any topic. Rule of the game was that the participant must not use 'I' while speaking on the topic. While the participant is speaking the other students present in the class are required to stay alert and point out whenever any participant uses 'I' in any statement. Those participants who failed to abide by the rule were out of the game.

The third game was an offline activity. All the students gathered in the amphitheater. Students were paired up in teams. And asked to dance on a piece of paper. As the game proceeded the paper was to be folded in half. At the end the team who survives on the smallest piece of paper along with her dance partner was the winner.

Lastly a tug of war event was conducted in two rounds. First round between FY & SY. Where the Second year students won. And the second round between SY & TY. Where the third year students won the event.

At the end the National Management Day was concluded with a group picture of all students. The students as well as the teacher thoroughly enjoyed the day.

The department of Food and Nutrition of Maniben Nanavati Women's College came up with a series of talks in the form of Nutri Jockey. A concept that is similar to a radio jockey asking a prominent celebrity or person questions related to a particular topic and asking questions on behalf of the people. The purpose of the Nutri Jockey talks is to spread awareness about the importance of healthy eating, exercising and having a balanced diet.

The very first Nutri Jockey session commenced on 6th September 2021 at 6:30 pm on the department's Instagram handle. The moderator for the session was Ms. Keyosha Anchan who interviewed the speaker Ms. Sukhada Bhatte on the topic, "Body Positivity and Adolescents". Sukhada ma'am covered topics like body positivity, size zero, and how social media affects the way we accept ourselves. Additionally, size 0 is an unhealthy concept, and social media encourages adolescents to have fair skin and have a size 0 diet since they aspire to become or look like a particular actor/actress. Most adolescents skip breakfast which is the most important meal of the day. The traditional Indian breakfast provides more carbohydrates and we should also include proteins like milk in our breakfast. To sum it up, Sukhada ma'am highlighted that adolescents should not miss their breakfast, always eat healthy so BMR will increase and stay healthy and most importantly accept our body despite its flaws.

The second Nutri Jockey session took place on 22nd September 2021 at 6:30 pm on the department's Instagram handle. The moderator of the session was Ms. Shama Chavan who interviewed the speaker, Ms. Niti Desai, on the topic "Vegan Diet." Niti ma'am covered the concept of a Vegan diet and also highlighted the sources of vegan foods such as almond milk, soy milk, and vegetable sources. She also stated that having vegan food though healthy doesn't have many proteins and clarified that the difference between a vegetarian diet and a vegan diet is that vegetarian food has animal products like milk, curd, and paneer, whereas a vegan diet has only plant-based foods. According to Niti ma'am, vegan food isn't recommended for young children and adolescents since they're growing and need higher levels of proteins. If following a vegan diet for a long term period it is advised to not have excess intake of vegan foods or it could also be harmful to our health. It was a very informative session organized by the Food and Nutrition department.

The third Nutri Jockey session took place on 17th October 2021 at 6:30 pm on the department's Instagram handle. The moderator of the session was Ms. Janhavi Pethe who interviewed the guest speaker Ms. Jayashree Paranjape on the topic, "Supplements and Adolescents in 2021". She highlighted that most people including adolescents consume supplements as a way of fitting into society's norms of body weight and body shape. She also suggested that if one were to take supplements for a weight loss program or for an exercise regime, it is recommended to consult a qualified dietician before taking the supplements. Supplements mainly benefit people who aren't able to have daily meals or don't get nutrients from their daily diet. Jayashree Ma'am also highlighted that it's important to verify proper article sources and to check with people who have benefited from consuming supplements as excess consumption can give rise to a condition called hypervitaminosis which leads to abnormally high storage levels of vitamins. Instead of taking supplements in the form of protein shakes, or pills or whey protein, it is recommended to have a balanced diet which can give the necessary nutrients a person requires daily.

The fourth Nutri Jockey session took place on 29th October 2021 at 5 pm on the department's Instagram handle. The moderator for the session was Ms. Crystal D'souza who interviewed the guest speaker, Ms. Zamurrud Patel, on the topic "Importance of Water and Beverages in daily diet." Zamurrud Ma'am highlighted the importance of drinking water as it is as important as consuming food daily. She also stated that soft drinks like Coke, Pepsi and other carbonated drinks should be consumed in minimal amounts as they are high in calories. It is recommended to have at least 2-3 liters of water every day. If a person doesn't have sufficient water daily, it could give rise to dehydration, lethargy and mood swings. Sometimes, people don't drink water since they might be in a cool environment. In conclusion, Zamurrud Ma'am stated that no drink can replace water. Even though coconut water is a good refreshment to maintain hydration, it is still recommended to have water daily. It was indeed a very informative session conducted on an important topic.

The Food and Nutrition department is yet to come up with more talks based on very crucial concepts and topics. Stay tuned for more sessions!

HOW TO MAKE YOUR KITCHEN GARDEN?

DATE: 15th September 2021

TIME: 3:30 to 5 pm

NO. OF PARTICIPANTS: 210 participants

NAME OF EXPERT: Ms. Aditi Khanduri

DESIGNATION OF EXPERT: Dietician

TOPIC: How to make your Kitchen Garden?

REPORT:

The opening of the event was done by Dr Rita Patil following which Ms. Zamurrud Patel invited Ms. Aditi Khanduri to start session on how to make your kitchen garden?

Dr Rita Patil introduced Ms. Aditi by speaking about her profession where she is a lactation consultant, diabetic Educator and has her own diet consultation clinic. She is passionate about nutrition and food along with her passion for kitchen garden.

Ms. Aditi Khanduri started with her session with- Things to keep in mind before starting garden and why kitchen garden is effective. A few points that she covered were: Easier to get home from farm to home, Pesticides and chemicals, Kids get excited and wish to try the food, fresh water used, Sunlight, the kinds of pots and use of drip system.

What kind of soil to use? Was the next subject of her presentation. In Maharashtra we use brown soil however every soil has its own benefits said Ms Aditi.

A few more things to keep in minds were that fertilizer is very important because no direct connect to ground. Don't over water the plant. Pests will be there no matter what. Keep your soil softened. Nudge the soil at regular intervals for aeration.

Next, she gave an outline of Where to start a kitchen garden?

Self-use and community grounds were the 2 kinds and she urged everyone to first start small, get a hang of it and then expand it further.

Later she went on to speak about Which vegetables to grow?

Okra, fennel seeds, chilly, pulses, soya, lemon, tomato, Tulsi, methi, kasuri methi were a few to name out of the lot. Growing from seeds and steam propagation could also be done with these vegetables and leaves: palak, lemon grass, curry leaves, ginger, potato, sweet potato.

Later ma'am showed us her own kitchen garden harvests such as Brinjal, methi, basil, okra, lauki, palak, shallots, red Amaranth, cabbage and fennel seeds.

A few important points that ma'am mentioned were that garden is always messy it won't be as pretty as you want. It takes time. Patience is key with kitchen garden. Look for sustainable options such as equipment.

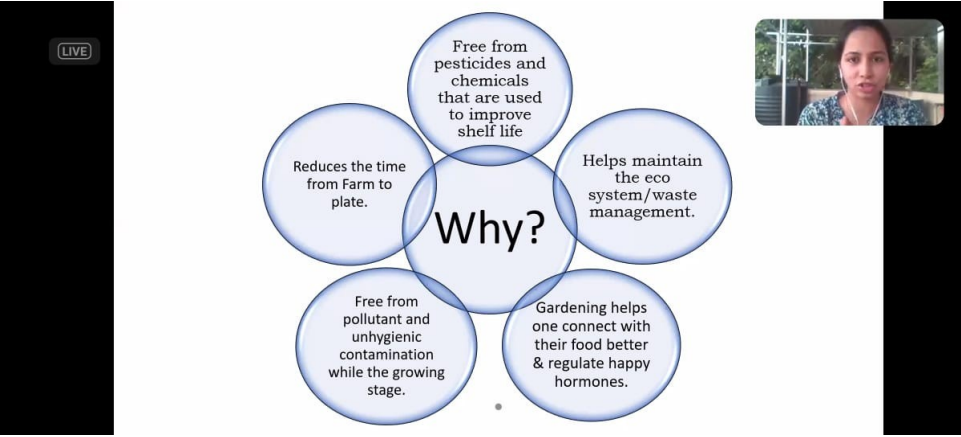

Then she went to investments. Start with minimal investment only. Composting makes everything more successful.

After speaking about how much money should be put into the kitchen, ma'am showed us her garden and what she has grown and harvested. With rice water excess veggie waste bio enzymes etc. She also showed those that aren't growing well.

She motivated us a lot. She started answering questions from the audience as well. Questions about snails and other pesticides. She said that Haldi powder is a way to remove them. She also suggested when to add compost etc...

Ma'am spoke about garlic and how long it takes to grow which is nearly 9 months. In addition, she spoke about how rice water can also be used as a compost. Tea powder and coffee powder is acid Fertilizer. Tomatoes use this. Smaller pieces of veggies for composting better the harvest. She spoke about basil leaves and curry leaves that bring in butterflies.

The session came to an end where Ms Shama Chavan gave the official vote of thanks along with the feedback form. The speaker was also thrilled to have been called on for a wonderful talk and the audience was excited to kickstart their kitchen garden soon.

CHILDHOOD AND EARLY LIFE OF B.R. AMBEDKAR

The ancestral village of Dr. Ambedkar is Ambavade, which is located in Rahagiri District of Maharashtra state and is located about 5 miles from Madhavgarh, which is a small village. Bhimrao Ambedkar was born on 14th April 1891 in village Mahu in a Mahar Caste, which was considered to be of the untouchables. His father's name was Ramji Sakpal and he was married to Bhimabai who was from the murbadkar family, Ramji Sakpal had 14 children out of which Bhimrao was the 14th. Bhimrao started experiencing the pangs of untouchability right from his childhood.

There was one Brahmin teacher in his high school. He loved Bhimrao very much. He dropped portions of his meals into the hands of Bhim daily during his recess. This teacher has left a permanent impression on Bhim's life. The original family name of Bhim's father was Sakpal. But Bhim's village was Ambavade from which in his school, his family name was written as Ambavadekar. But the family name of the teacher who loved Bhimrao was Ambedkar. The teacher loved Bhim so much that he changed Bhim's family name from Ambavadekar to Ambedkar. And in the school register, he noted it accordingly. Bhimrao very gracefully accepted this new family name given to him by his beloved teacher. And for the rest of his life, he lived with that last name. Dr. Ambedkar has always remembered this teacher for his lifetime.
