

Ms. Himali Rajesh Pimpale

Ms. Himali Pimpale is Asst. Professor of B. Design (Fashion Design) at Maniben Nanavati Women's College. She serves as a member of the Women Development Cell where the team has worked on various Women and Gender related aspects, events such as GenderLogue, International Women's Day, member of NSS unit working with students for Peace rallies, Beach cleanup, various talks and a week's Special Camp for students.

Her teaching and guidance forte are in Quality Assurance, textile testing, Garment Construction, Pattern Making, Entrepreneurship, Intellectual Property Rights and History in Fashion.

Conducted Rainbowz Exhibition along with the team of B. Design (Fashion Design) and BNCDC students and teachers. Leading her way in making MNWC's Fashion magazine 'Shanelle- The Chic Way'.

She has experience in teaching, being an entrepreneur and has knowledge of working in an export house as Merchandiser and Fabric Analyst. Research and Development program at UniFlow Control Instruments Pvt. Ltd. was her focus and she worked for testing and developing denim fabric as per hazards for frontline workers. She also had her own brand for more than 3 years of Women's and Men's customized clothing, brand name 'DeemasH Fashion'

Her Quality Assurance skills come from working in the Textile Committee, Prabhadevi. She was also part of MoU with Japan for the Capacity Building Program. She has also taught in National Institute of Fashion Technology and Savvy College. Her knowledge of working in various fields has given her the benefit of preparing students for the future via her personal experience.